

Equestrian Site Rules

Melee Madness

1. No minors are allowed by the barn unless accompanied by a parent.
2. No minors are allowed in the holding area unless accompanied by a parent.
3. No one is allowed in the ring unless they are an authorized rider, approved groundsman or by invitation of a marshal.
4. No one is allowed in a horse trailer unless it belongs to them or they have the owner's permission.
5. Do not sit on any fencing.
6. Do not play in any of the water.
7. Do not move any hay bales that are in or by the barn.
8. Do not climb or sit on any bleachers that have caution tape around them.
9. Do not walk up behind any horse. (you may get kicked)
10. Do not feed anything to a horse unless you have the owner/rider's permission.
11. If you would like to pet a horse ask the owner or rider. We love to show off our great steeds and they love attention as well.

If you are found violating any of these rules you and your minor will be asked to remain in the bleachers for the remainder of the session or to leave the grounds. Some of these horses are extremely expensive and there are too many ways for careless behavior by an adult or child that could lead to a serious injury.
